

EITC Awareness Day Toolkit

National League of Cities' (NLC) Economic Opportunity and Financial Empowerment team has worked with local leaders to implement Earned Income Tax Credit (EITC) outreach campaigns for over 20 years.

These campaigns have helped to raise awareness of the tax credit and increase the participation of low- and moderate-income residents. As this work has grown, we've helped cities develop new partners with existing local Volunteer Income Tax Assistance \(VITA\) programs to help residents access this critical tax credit through a trusted source.

These collective efforts bring more than $60 billion in federal dollars back to local economies every year. In 2024, qualifying families with three or more children could receive $7,430.

We will help you advance your work in this space if you are interested through NLC's Economic Mobility Peer Network.

On Friday, January 26, 2024, we will celebrate the 18th annual EITC Awareness Day. This day is an effort by the IRS to encourage local governments, community organizations, and other stakeholders to bring attention to the EITC and opportunities for free tax filing services through virtual VITA and via GetYourRefund.org.

This toolkit has been created to help you celebrate the day, connect with VITA partners, and raise the visibility of this important tax credit for your residents. It includes a template press release, a sample email to partners, a city proclamation template, and sample social media posts that you can tailor to meet your needs.

In January, we will post a blog post noting EITC Awareness Day on NLC's CitiesSpeak blog. Once published, we will share the link to the post on our social media channels and would appreciate you promoting it on your social media accounts. If you are unaware of your local EITC and VITA providers, contact your IRS Territory Manager to help get connected.

Finally, to help us understand what cities, towns and villages do to celebrate this important day, please send us a copy of your completed press release or proclamation and links to any local stories it generates.

If you have any questions or require a Microsoft Word version of this toolkit, let us know at eofe@nlc.org, and we'd be happy to help.

Thank you,

[LOCATION BYLINE] The City of [City Name] is joining others across the nation in proclaiming January 26, 2024, EITC Awareness Day. EITC Awareness Day is a nationwide effort to bring awareness to one of the most important tax credits available to working families and individuals. With strong bipartisan support since its inception in the mid-70s, it has grown to become one of the largest anti-poverty tools in the U.S. Unfortunately, nearly one in five people eligible for the EITC do not claim it. Dear _____,

This year, the Earned Income Tax Credit (EITC Awareness Day) is Friday, January 26, 2024. This day offers an opportunity to promote a much-needed tax credit that helps many families in our community improve their financial stability.

The EITC provided 31 million eligible workers and families nationwide with more than $60 billion. These dollars are a significant injection of resources for families and are very important to the sustainability of their yearly finances. The IRS has found that one in five eligible people do not claim the EITC, so I am reaching out. I am asking if you have already planned activities for EITC Awareness Day and if my staff and I can help raise the visibility of the event and the tax credit for our residents by being a part of it.

I believe that together, we can help raise the visibility of the EITC and the events of this day by [\[City plans or general ideas on how to spread EITC Awareness -- i.e., joint news conference; joint press release; social media push; etc.\]](#)

Beyond the EITC Awareness Day itself, if there's anything I can do to help your organization through the tax season, please let me know, including [\[City hold music listing where residents should go for VITA services, Public Service Announcement \(PSA\) that could note VITA and where residents should go, etc.\]](#)

The EITC is a vital tool for the residents of our city, and your organization could be a crucial partner in our effort to spread awareness of this tax credit and aid people in claiming it. I am dedicated to ensuring families get the tax credits they deserve, and this partnership will be vital to ensuring the success of EITC Awareness Day and the upcoming tax season. More importantly, it will boost income for residents within our community who need it most.
